

PHOTOGRAPHY PERMISSION SLIP

Dear Parents,

September 8, 2019

There will be many opportunities this school year in which your child/children may be photographed. These pictures may be used to present the Special Service Projects, beginning to end; the sites for the Special Service Projects may also take pictures for their publications, etc. Social events sponsored by the parish, assignments for the Student Mass, service to the parish at fundraisers and other opportunities as they arise will also be photographed.

And during this era of electronic imaging, your child/children's image may be displayed on Facebook, Texts, the Parish website and other social media channels. The Special Project organization in which we will participate may also use social media to promote and celebrate our service to them.

We are asking you to choose allowing to use your child/children's image in all way possible or not. All forms must be return to your child's teacher on Sunday, September 15.

With your signature below, you consent as follows:
