The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

Entrance Hymn:

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless
Thy chosen pilgrim flock
With manna in the wilderness,
With water from the rock.
We would not live by bread alone,
But by thy word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding place.

Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;
Savior, abide with us and spread
Thy table in our heart.
Lord, sup with us in love divine;
Thy body and thy blood,
That living bread, that heav'nly wine,
Be our immortal food.

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Moses said to the people: "Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD. "Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers."

Responsorial Psalm

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Glorify the LORD, O Jerusalem;
praise your God, O Zion.
For he has strengthened the bars of your gates;
he has blessed your children within you. R.

He has granted peace in your borders;
with the best of wheat he fills you.
He sends forth his command to the earth;
swiftly runs his word!. R.

He has proclaimed his word to Jacob,
his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
He has not done thus for any other nation;
his ordinances he has not made known to them. Alleluia.R.

A Reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

A Reading from the Gospel of John

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Recessional Hymn:

O Jesus, we adore thee, Who in thy love divine Conceal thy mighty Godhead in forms of bread and wine.
O sacrament most holy, O sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving be ev'ry
moment thine!

O Jesus, we adore thee, our victim and our priest,
Whose precious blood and body become our sacred feast.
O sacrament most holy, O sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving be ev'ry
moment thine!

O come, all you who labor in sorrow and in pain;
Come, eat this bread from heaven, your peace and strength regain.
O sacrament most holy, O sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving be ev'ry
moment thine!

PILGRIMAGE ON PAPER - Each week the bulletin will feature a different historic church worthy of a visit. Since Fr. Aron's custom of bus trips to interesting churches in our region is impossible for now, it is hoped that you will enjoy the "pilgrimage" in this weekend's bulletin - if only on paper. This week's featured church is Decker's Chapel and St. Mary's Church - St. Marys, PA.

DIOCESE OF ERIE - DECKER'S CHAPEL AND ST. MARY'S CHURCH - ST. MARYS, PA - Once noted for being the county with the highest percentage of Catholics in the United States, Elk County, and most notably the town of St. Marys is a living witness to a quest for freedom by Bavarian Catholics who established a farming commune in the sparsely populated northwestern Pennsylvania county in 1842. In that year, a band of German Catholic immigrants composed of 15 families from Baltimore, and four families from Philadelphia settled on a 30,000 acre tract of wilderness that had been purchased from the Fox Land Company by the German Catholic Brotherhood of Philadelphia and Baltimore for $0.75 an acre. St. Marys historians Charles Schaut and A.C. Brehm speculate that these early settlers came to northwestern Pennsylvania in an effort to escape the religious persecution that was emerging in the eastern cities; that they were seeking a communal experience where they were free to practice their German heritage and their Roman Catholic religion without harassment. After the official founding on December 8, 1842, what followed was a European migration, primarily Bavarian, but also including immigrants from Prussia, Baden, Hesse, Nassau, France, Wurttemberg, and Bohemia. By 1860, Saint Marys had a population of nearly 2,000 people. In Dec. 1853, the first Mass was held in the current St. Mary's Church. While the first priests at the parish were German Redemptorists, the Benedictine Monks of St. Vincent Archabbey in Latrobe have staffed the parish for most of its existence. Joseph Gravanni painted a scene of Saint Benedict's death on the ceiling of the church in 1900, and the second set of stained-glass windows were installed in 1910. The main altar was designed and built by Benedictine Brother Cosmas Wolf in 1969. William Lambrecht's large painting in the center of it depicts the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception. Just a few miles away from the Church stands a votive chapel known as Decker's Chapel, one of the smallest churches in the United States. A family named Decker arrived in America from Parsberg, Bavaria, Germany in 1846 and settled in an area near what is now St. Marys. One day, while working in his orchard, the elder Michael Decker fell from a tree and injured his back. Deeply religious, he vowed that if the injury healed he would build and maintain a chapel. The injury did heal and the little wayside place of worship became a landmark of Elk County. Decker's Chapel is one of the smallest churches in the world. The original building was built in about 1856. A crude structure, it was renovated over the course of its existence into the picturesque chapel it is today. In 1928, a monument was erected in memory of Monsignor Michael Joseph Decker, the son of the chapel's original builder. Decker's Chapel underwent a major renovation, which was completed in 2016. The original stacked stone foundation was repaired and the floor reinforced to accommodate visitors in wheelchairs. The St. Marys landmark is open every day, year-round. Visitors are encouraged to visit this quiet place of prayer and reflection.

NOVENA OF CONFIDENCE - June has traditionally been dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Below is the "Novena of Confidence", a great prayer to pray during this month dedicated to the love of Christ.

O Lord Jesus Christ, To your most Sacred Heart, I confide this/these intention(s):
(mention your intention)

Only look upon me, And then do What your Sacred Heart inspires. Let your Sacred Heart decide I count on it, I trust in it, I throw myself on your mercy, Lord Jesus! You will not fail me. Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you. Sacred Heart of Jesus, I believe in Your love for me. Sacred Heart of Jesus, Your Kingdom come. O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I have asked you for many favors, But I earnestly implore this one. Take it. Place it in Your open, broken Heart; And, when the Eternal Father looks upon It, Covered with Your Precious Blood, He will not refuse it. It will be no longer my prayer, But Yours, O Jesus. O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You. Let me not be disappointed. Amen.

K of C BLOOD DRIVE - The Central City Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a blood drive with the American Red Cross. The drive will be held at the St. John's chapel on Wednesday, July 22nd from 12:30 PM until 6:00 PM. Your support is welcome and critical to providing a stable and sufficient blood supply for your community!
