The Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Hymn: Shepherd of Souls, Refresh and Bless

1. Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless
Thy chosen pilgrim flock
With manna in the wilderness,
With water from the rock.
2. We would not live by bread alone,
But by thy word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding place.
3. Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;
Savior, abide with us, and spread
Thy table in our heart.
4. Lord, sup with us in love divine;
Thy body and thy blood,
That living bread, that heav'nly wine,
Be our immortal food.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; Come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk! Why spend your money for what is not bread; your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David.

Responsorial Psalm

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works. R.

The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth. R.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
and you give them their food in due season;
you open your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing. R.

A Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

A Reading from the Gospel of Matthew

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, "This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." But they said to him, “Five loaves and two fish are all we have here.” Then he said, “Bring them here to me,” and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over— twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

Recessional Hymn: O Living Bread from Heaven

1. O Living Bread from heaven,
How well you fed your guest!
The gifts that you have given
Have filled my heart with rest.
O wondrous food of blessing!
O cup that heals our woes!
My heart, this gift possessing,
With praises overflows!

2. Lord Jesus, here you led me
Within your holiest place,
And here yourself have fed me
with treasures of your grace;
And you have freely given
What earth could never buy,
The bread of life from heaven,
That I may never die.

3. You gave me all I wanted;
This food can death destroy.
And you have freely granted
The cup of endless joy.
O Lord, I do not merit
The favor you have shown,
And all my soul and spirit
Bow down before your throne.

4. Lord, grant me that, thus strengthened
With heavenly food, while here
My course on earth is lengthened,
I serve with holy fear;
And when you call my spirit
To leave this world below,
I enter, through your merit,
Where joys unmingled flow.
