The Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Hymn: Holy, Holy, Holy

1. Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty,
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee.

Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

3. Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness
hide thee,

Though the eye of sinful man thy glory
may not see

Only Thou art holy; there is none beside
thee,

Perfect in pow'r, in love, and purity.

2. Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore thee, Casting down their golden crowns around the
glassy sea;

Cherubim and seraphim falling down before
thee,

Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

4. Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name in earth,
and sky, and sea;

Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

A Reading from the Book of Sirach

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

Responsorial Psalm

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.

Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits. R.

He pardons all your iniquities,
heals all your ills.

He redeems your life from destruction,
crowns you with kindness and compassion. R.

He will not always chide,
nor does he keep his wrath forever.

Not according to our sins does he deal with us,
nor does he requite us according to our crimes.
R.

For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.

As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he put our transgressions from us. R.

A Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

A Reading from the Gospel of Matthew

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

Recessional Hymn: Where Charity and Love Prevail

1. Where charity and love prevail,
There God is ever found;
Brought here together by Christ's love,
By love are we thus bound.

3. Forgive we now each other's faults
As we our faults confess;
And let us love each other well
in Christian holiness.

2. With grateful joy and holy fear
His charity we learn;
Let us with heart and mind and soul
Now love him in return.

4. Let strife among us be unknown,
Let all contention cease;
Be his the glory that we seek,
Be ours his holy peace.

REST IN PEACE - Please remember in your prayers Marty "Mood" Walat who passed away last week. Marty is the brother of parishioners Anita Krupa and Jane Walat. May Marty's soul and all the souls of the Faithful Departed Rest in Peace. May God grant comfort to Marty's family and friends.

WEEKLY OFFERING - Thank you so very much to all who continue to support the church!

2020/2021 BACKPACK PROGRAM - Once again, All Saints Parish will be participating in this year's Backpack Program and will be collecting coats, hats, boots, and gloves to help youth that are in need of these items throughout the school year. These items can be "new or gently used", they can come from Yard Sales, Salvation Army, Goodwill, Consignment Stores, Food Pantries or even from your own closet. We will also be collecting Backpacks and school supplies - ALL SCHOOL SUPPLIES MUST BE NEW, NEVER USED (there is a list in the Church Lobby). Please take all donated items (bagged) to the Kolby Center. They will be picked up from there and delivered to our drop point. As always, thank You for your continued generosity!!!

MEALS-ON-WHEELS - Due to the Corona Virus, All Saints Parish will be donating a check to Meals-on-Wheels for the September Desserts instead of asking for donated desserts. Thank You for your support for the desserts campaign over the past several years. We plan on resuming the desserts donation next year.
