Examination of Conscience

I. “I am the Lord, thy God, thou shalt not have strange gods before Me.” - Have I sinned against Religion by seriously believing in New Age, Scientology, Astrology, Horoscopes, Fortune-telling, Superstition or engaging in the Occult? Did I endanger my Catholic Faith or cause scandal by associating with anti-Catholic groups & associations? Have fame, fortune, money, career, pleasure, etc. replaced God as my highest priority? Have I neglected my daily prayers?

II. “Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.” - Have I committed blasphemy by using the name of God and Jesus Christ to swear rather than to praise? Have I committed sacrilege by showing disrespect to holy objects or for sacred places? Have I committed sacrilege by going to Holy Communion in the state of mortal sin without first going to confession e.g., after missing Mass on Sunday or a Holyday? Did I violate the one-hour fast before Communion? Did I break the laws of fast and abstinence during Lent? Did I neglect my Easter duty to receive Holy Communion at least once? Have I neglected to support the Church and the poor by sharing my time, talent and treasure?

III. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day. - Did I miss Mass on any Sunday or Holyday of Obligation? (Bad weather and being sick do not count) Have I shown disrespect by leaving Mass early, not paying attention or not joining in the prayers? Did I do unnecessary work on Sunday which could have been done the day before?

IV. Honor thy Father and Mother. - Parents: Have I set a bad example for my children by casually missing Mass, neglecting prayer, or ignore my responsibility to provide a Catholic education by either sending my children to parochial school or to C.C.D. (Religious Education Program)? Do I show little or no interest in my children’s faith and practice of it? Have I not expressed my moral values to them? Children: Have I been disobedient and/or disrespectful to my parents or guardians? Did I neglect to help them with household chores? Have I caused them unnecessary worry and anxiety by my attitude, behavior, moods, etc.?

V. Thou shalt not kill. - Did I consent, recommend, advise, approve, support or have an abortion? Did I actively or passively cooperate with an act of euthanasia whereby ordinary means were stopped or means taken to directly end the life of an elderly or sick person? Have I committed an act of violence or abuse (physical, sexual, emotional or verbal)? Have I endangered the lives of others by reckless driving or by driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol? Do I show contempt for my body by neglecting to take care of my own health? Have I been mean or unjust to anyone? Have I held a grudge or sought revenge against someone who wronged me? Do I point out others’ faults and mistakes while ignoring my own? Do I complain more than I compliment? Am I ungrateful for what other people do for me? Do I tear people down rather than encourage them? Am I prejudiced against people because of their color, language or ethnic-religious background?

VI. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VII. Thou shalt not steal.

VIII. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor. - Have I told a lie in order to deceive someone? Have I told the truth with the purpose and intention of ruining someone’s reputation (sin of detraction)? Have I told a lie or spread rumors which may ruin someone’s reputation (sin of calumny or slander)? Did I commit perjury by false swearing an oath on the Bible? Am I a busy-body or do I love to spread gossip and secrets about others? Do I love to hear bad news about my enemies?

IX. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s wife. - Did I have any sex outside of marriage? Do I view pornographic material? Did I commit the sins of masturbation and/or artificial contraception? Have I not avoided the occasions of sin (persons or places) which would tempt me to be unfaithful to my spouse or to my own chastity? Do I encourage and entertain impure thoughts and desires or engage in obscene or disrespectful conversations?

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s goods. - Have I stolen any object, committed any shoplifting or cheated anyone of their money? Did I knowingly deceive someone in business or commit fraud? Have I shown disrespect or even contempt for other people’s property? Have I done any acts of vandalism? Am I greedy or envious of another’s goods? Do I let financial and material concerns or the desire for comfort override my duty to God, to God, to my family or my own spiritual well-being?

Act of Contrition: O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because I dread the loss of Heaven and fear the pains of hell, but most of all, because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and worthy of all my love. I firmly intend with the help of Thy grace to confess my sins, to do penance and to amend my life. AMEN

A Guide to Confession

A good Catholic examination of conscience can be a great help in making a new start in the life of faith. We use an examination of conscience to help call to mind our sins and failings during a period of quiet reflection before approaching sacramental Confession. It's important for a good examination of conscience to be thorough. This will help you to consider what sins you are guilty of and make you aware of sins you might not realize as sins. It's also a chance to develop your conscience. This is a critical aid for any Catholic. To make an examination:

- Set aside some quiet time for reflection.
- Start by praying to the Holy Spirit, asking for help in making a good examination to prepare for Confession.
- Read through the matters of this list and honestly reflect on your behavior for each.
- Remember that a mortal sin is committed when :
 1. Full Knowledge that the act (thought, word or omission) was contrary to God's will (sinful) is possessed by the offender;
 2. Full Consent (with intentionality; i.e., not forced) is held by the one committing the sin;
 3. Grave Matter (anything under the Ten Commandments and the Precepts of the Church) is the circumstances of the sin.

If any of these three conditions are not met the sin is to be known as venial. It is a very good idea to confess venial sins as well, since these sins, like all sin, offend God Who deserves all of our love. Confessing venial sins helps us to be more sensitive to God and more faithful in our love to Him. If one willingly withholds or conceals a sin in confession it is a serious sin, and it invalidates the absolution. Do not worry! Do not be afraid! Jesus wants you to tell him your sins with honesty and courageousness that he may remove the hurt from your heart and soul. Do not further steep yourself in sin by concealing sins in confession. Also, it should be noted, the priest is bound under pain of grievous mortal sin and excommunication, if he ever reveals anything said in the confessional. No matter how grievous the sin, do not be afraid. Admit your failings openly and God will grant you His sweet gift of forgiveness.

Legacy of Life Foundation

LENTEN CHARITY - On Palm Sunday (this weekend) our sister parishes will take up a special second collection for Legacy of Life Foundation (LOLF). The Legacy of Life Foundation is a Christ centered agency that offers an inspirational and joyful pro-life message and provides the funding for two crisis pregnancy centers, located in Bristol and Philadelphia PA. Lamentations (Gorzkie Zale)

TODAY—Sunday, April 2,, 2023—OLQA Church— 3:00pm

Speaker Dr. Gregory Sweeny – Dr. Sweeny, a native of Latrobe, is a graduate of Georgetown University Medical School and currently practices family medicine in Hollidaysburg. Dr. Sweeny and his wife are the parents of eight children, the youngest being Regina. In 2011, at the age of eleven, otherwise perfectly healthy Regina suffered a sudden and rapid decline that culminated in her death a few weeks after the onset of her sickness. Yet, in spite of their grief, Dr. Sweeny and his wife didn't lose their faith. Dr. Sweeny will speak to us about finding and hope and faith even in the most painful circumstances.
