BUS TRIP – On Sunday August 6th Fr. Aron will be offering a bus tour of historic Catholic churches in Philadelphia. Because the trip is also people from the Altoona area, the bus will meet pick-up those attending in Bedford (those interested can car pool from Central City). Traveling by Raystown motor coach, the first stop will be the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul, the “Mother-Church” of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Following a tour of the cathedral those present will attend the cathedral’s 11:00 AM Mass. Built in Roman-Corinthian style, the building heavily influenced Philadelphia native, Bishop John McCort, when he constructed his cathedral in Altoona. After Mass, lunch will be at the Reading Terminal Market. Filled with old-world festive energy, the Reading Terminal Market is host to many ethnic and specialty food vendors. Among the vendors is Tommy DiNic’s – a Reading Terminal institution – proudly serving a legendary roast pork sandwich that was voted the best sandwich in the country! Following lunch the next stop will be St. Adalbert's Church in Philadelphia's Port Richmond neighborhood. St. Adalbert's is the last remaining officially designated Polish parish in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. An authentic Polish neighborhood, Port Richmond is home to a number of Polish merchants (there should be some time to visit one near the church), and is home to not only many older Polish-American families, but also many new arrivals from Poland. Following our visit to St. Adalbert's the bus will travel to the church of St. Peter the Apostle. St. Peter's serves as the final resting place for the body of St. John Neumann, the 4th bishop of Philadelphia (his body, covered in wax, is visible under the altar). The final church on the tour is Old St. Joseph Church, the oldest parish in Philadelphia. In obtrusive and simple, Old St. Joseph's was at one time the only place in the English-speaking world where Mass was legally celebrated. The tour will end with dinner at in the Italian Market section of the city at Ralph's Restaurant, the oldest Italian restaurant in the United States (family owned into the 5th generation). Dinner, served family style, includes salad, soup, veal parmigiana, chicken trombino (breasts of chicken diced and sautéed with roasted peppers, plum tomatoes, topped with sharp provolone in a garlic, oil and white wine sauce), linguini pescatore (white shrimp, clams, mussels and crabmeat over linguini), and is followed by coffee/tea, and cannoli. The cost of the trip is $90.00 per person and INCLUDES dinner at Ralph's, bus transportation, and hours and hours and hours of Fr. Aron talking about faith, history, and, probably, himself. If you wish to attend or have any questions please call the rectory at 814-754-5224, or email Fr. Aron, maganudo@yahoo.com. The trip is already over half-filled, first-come-first-served, if you are planning on making the trip please call the rectory before the seats are all taken.
