NOT AT QUEEN OF ANGELS? – A priest was summoned to the bedside of a woman who was from a neighboring parish. The woman was quite ill. As he was leaving the house, he spoke to the daughter of the woman and said to her, "I am very glad your mother asked for a priest in her illness. Is your priest out of town?" The daughter answered, "No, he is at home, but we thought it might be something contagious, and we didn't want to expose him to it."

CURSILLO ALUMNI – The 40th Anniversary of Cursillo in the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese will be celebrated on Sunday, July 10th at 2:00 pm at St. Michael's Basilica in Loretto. Bishop Bartchak will be the celebrant of the Mass. A reception will follow in Our Lady of Loretto Hall following the Mass. If you made a Crusillo retreat at some point during the last four decades you and your family are most welcome to attend.

WHAT IS A MONTHS MIND MASS? –The old tradition of having a Mass said on the one month anniversary of the deceased's passing is what is referred to as the Month's Mind Mass. Celebrated in an atmosphere of prayerful remembrance, of gratitude, and of hope in the resurrection, the Month's Mind is an opportunity to once again commend the deceased to the love of God. St. Bede (often called the Venerable Bede) wrote about this practice during his lifetime (672-735 A.D.) and it is a very common practice in many parishes, especially parishes in Ireland or parishes found elsewhere with significant numbers of parishioners of Irish descent.

REGRETS, I'VE HAD A FEW - In case you weren't aware, at some point in time you are going to die. No way around it, human mortality is still holding steady at 100%. That being said, not long ago I (Fr. Aron) read about a woman named Bronnie Ware who spent years working in palliative care. As a result of her work with people in the last three to twelve weeks of their lives she noticed that people in the final stages of life often had regrets about the way that they lived their lives. Of all the regrets that people had she noted that there were some regrets in particular that were most common. Thinking ahead, since death will eventually come all of us, I have published her reflections below in the hope that we may avoid these same regrets by taking care of these things before we pass from this life. People grow a lot when they are faced with their own mortality. When questioned about any regrets they had or anything they would do differently, common themes surfaced again and again. Here are some of the most common: 1. I wish I'd had the courage to live a life true to myself, not the life others expected of me. This was the most common regret of all. When people realize that their life is almost over and look back clearly on it, it is easy to see how many dreams have gone unfulfilled. 2. I wish I didn't work so hard. This came from every male patient that I nursed. They missed their children's youth and their partner's companionship. Women also spoke of this regret. By simplifying your lifestyle and making conscious choices along the way, it is possible to not need the income that you think you do. 3. I wish I'd had the courage to express my feelings. Many people suppressed their feelings in order to keep peace with others. As a result, they settled for a mediocre existence and never became who they were truly capable of becoming. Many developed illnesses relating to the bitterness and resentment they carried as a result. 4. I wish I had stayed in touch with my friends. Often they would not truly realize the full benefits of old friends until their dying weeks and it was not always possible to track them down. Many had become so caught up in their own lives that they had let golden friendships slip by over the years. There were many deep regrets about not giving friendships the time and effort that they deserved. 5. I wish that I had let myself be happier. This is a surprisingly common one. Many did not realize until the end that happiness is a choice. They had stayed stuck in old patterns and habits. Deep within, they longed to laugh properly and have silliness in their life again. When you are on your deathbed, what others think of you is a long way from your mind. How wonderful to be able to let go and smile again, long before you are dying.

ARTIFACTS NEEDED – This summer marks the 100th Anniversary of the arrival of Fr. Pliz and the beginnings of the Catholic faith in Central City (the date is slightly more complex). Fr. Aron would like to decorate a new meeting room in the rectory with pictures and artifacts from our parish history (both Sacred Heart and St. John). If you have some older photos, suitable for framing, or some artifacts that you would be willing to donate to this display please contact Fr. Aron.
