Lamentations (Gorzkie Zale)

Sunday, March 19, 2023—OLQA Church— 3:00pm

Speaker Pilgrim George Walter – George Walter was born in Pittsburgh in 1941 and spent twelve years in the seminary where he was ordained a deacon, but never a priest. Dispensed from the responsibilities of being a deacon, George Walter spent the last fifty years walking over 40,000 miles living hand to mouth, relying on Divine Providence. His story, captured in the book The Forty Thousand Mile Man, has been the subject of much inspiration and is a powerful example of moving from a notion of God's care to actually relying on God's care. Pilgrim George, who largely lives as a hermit in his old age, rarely speaks publically any longer. Our parish is grateful that he is planning on sharing his thoughts on the spiritual life with us.

CCD NEWS—All Saints & OLQA—The second grade class will be traveling to Loretto for their retreat today. They will visit St. Michael Basilica, Prince Gallitzin Chapel House and visit the Carmelite nuns. Please pray for these children and their families that the Holy Spirit will help guide them as they prepare for First Confession and First Holy Communion.
