All Saints Announcements

•ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO HIM – Our prayerful sympathies are sent to the family of Robert Dedik from All Saints Parish whose funeral was this past Thursday. Please remember Robert and his family in your prayers. May he rest in peace!

•Late Medieval Church History Class: During Lent starting on Wednesday February 21st Father Aron will offer a class on late medieval Church history in the Kolbe center at All Saints Parish. The events that transpired during the late medieval period have not only profoundly affected religious history but have shaped the modern world in ways that are often overlooked. If you want to understand the modern world you need to understand the events that transpired in the late medieval period. Classes should last about an hour after the 6:30PM Mass.

•Shadow Stations: On February 25th at 3:00PM at the All Saints Parish Hall (505 Center Street, Boswell) members of St. Clement and All Saints parishes will silently portray the final hours of the life of Jesus from His condemnation to His resurrection in a presentation of Shadow Stations of the Cross. We hope you can join the All Saints Parish family to experience this powerful way to meditate on the deep love of Christ who gave himself up to death for you. All are welcome.

Lamentations (Gorzkie Zale)

Sunday, March 10, 2024—OLQA Church— 3:00pm

Speaker Dr. Stephen Rombouts – Dr. Rombouts holds a doctorate in European history from Vanderbilt University with a secondary field in art history. A longtime faculty member of Saint Francis University, Dr. Rombouts will offer spiritual reflections on art, history, and our Catholic faith. Why do Catholic churches have lots of art? Does it really matter? What can we learn from the beauty that surrounds us? Dr. Rombouts lives in Loretto and was named a member of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher, an order of knighthood under the protection of the Holy See, founded in 1099.
