New Parish Information

Recently our parish received a $500 grant from the Independent Catholic Foundation who has an office in Altoona. We are going to use this grant toward the payment for the Chalices and Ceboria, that we recently ordered. The Foundation created in 1990 supports the various ministries of our Diocese through permanent endowments. Please consider remembering our parish or favorite Catholic ministry in your estate planning. The Foundation can assist you with this and can be reached in their Altoona office at (814) 201-2080 or www.icfdaj.org.
Our sincerest Thank You to the Independent Catholic Foundation for considering Our Lady Queen of Angels for this grant.

God parents need to be practicing Catholics and should be able to give the Priest an approved sponsor certificate from their home Catholic Church.

Hospital Visits: If you want the priest to visit your loved ones in a hospital, you need to call the rectory . If you think someone should be in the Parish Bulletin Prayer List, contact the Rectory .

OLQA Funerals & Cemetery Information

In the case of death, families must contact the Rectory of Our Lady Queen of Angels Catholic Church before they sit down with any funeral director, so that appropriate and proper arrangements may be made. The Pastor will help the family to make all arrangements for the Church, spiritual services, cemetery and burial arrangements, luncheons, etc. Families who do not follow this procedure are usually disappointed, especially at a time when they do not need additional stress in their lives. The choice is theirs. All funeral directors who do business with this Church should inform their clients of this fact.

Liturgical Reflection...

The Homily is a central part of Mass. It is necessary for the nurturing of the Christian life. It should be an explanation of some aspect of the readings from Sacred Scripture or of another text from the Roman Missal. The Homily should take into account both the mystery being celebrated and the particular needs of the listeners. The Homily is ordinarily given by the Priest Celebrant or can be entrusted to a concelebrating Priest or to the Deacon, but never to a lay person. It is especially recommended to have a Homily on the weekdays of Easter Time.
