We give thanks to God for our people who give much of their time, talent & treasure and expect little in return. They will inherit the Kingdom of God. By reason of Baptism we are all called to a lay ministry vocation in the Church. All members, young and old, should be active in some way. People involved in ministries, services and programs for the Church, are people who go beyond their “COMFORT ZONE”.

BAPTISM: By Appointment; please call the Rectory

MARRIAGE: Pastor should be notified at least six months in advance so that couples can complete their preparation. Couples will be asked if they have first considered having their wedding reception in our Activities Center.

REGISTRATION: Contact the Church Rectory at 754-5224.

VISITATION OF THE SICK: Call the rectory to have shut-ins placed on our Holy Communion calls list.

FUNERALS, SERVICES, CEMETERY, ARRANGEMENTS, PURCHASE OF BURIAL PLOTS, ETC.: Arranged by the Rectory/Cemetery Committee. These arrangements are not to be made by any funeral directors.

The tradition has been that when a deceased person is remembered at a Mass, their family and friends try to attend.

Also, at this most spiritual time, there will be a reading of all the names on our prayer list, where we pray that God will heal in mind, body and spirit.

Baptism for babies in our Church is for parents who want to raise their children in the Catholic Faith. Parents who do not come to Church, even if they have other children baptized, need to come to Church regularly if they hope to baptize their new children. God parents need to be practicing Catholics and should be able to give the Priest an approved sponsor certificate from their home Catholic Church.

OLQA Funerals & Cemetery Information

In the case of death, families must contact the Rectory of Our Lady Queen of Angels Catholic Church before they sit down with any funeral director, so that appropriate and proper arrangements may be made. The Pastor will help the family to make all arrangements for the Church, spiritual services, cemetery and burial arrangements, luncheons, etc. Families who do not follow this procedure are usually disappointed, especially at a time when they do not need additional stress in their lives. The choice is theirs. All funeral directors who do business with this Church should inform their clients of this fact.

The Greater Love

“Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one’s life for his friends.” (John 15:1)In his book, “Written in Blood”, Robert Coleman tells the story of a little boy whose sister needed a blood transfusion. The doctor had explained that she had the same disease the boy had recovered from two years earlier. Her only chance for recovery was a transfusion from someone who had previously conquered the disease. Since the two children had the same rare blood type, the boy was the ideal donor. “Would you give your blood to your sister Mary?” the doctor asked. Little Johnny hesitated, his lower lip started to tremble, and then he smiled and said, “Sure, for my sister.” Soon the two children were wheeled into the hospital room—Mary, pale and thin; Johnny, robust and healthy. Neither spoke, but when they met, Johnny grinned. As the nurse inserted the needle into his arm, Johnny’s smile faded. He watched the blood flow through the tube. With the ordeal almost over, his voice slightly shaky, broke the silence. “Doctor when do I die?” Only then did the doctor realize why Johnny had hesitated, why his lip had trembled when he’d agreed to donate his blood. He’d thought giving his blood to his sister meant giving up his life. Though, in reality, it was not necessary, he was willing to give his life for his sister. In that brief moment, his love for his sister, caused him to make his great decision.

Let us remember that there was one who laid down His life for us.
