New Parish Information

Our Lady Queen of Angels would like to offer our sincerest Thank You and Blessings to Father Jeremiah, who will be leaving us with many memories of his spiritual and meaningful homilies.

We have many reasons to thank you, especially in the confessional, when you absolve us from our sins. This is a gift of God's forgiveness that we receive from you. No other gift can take its place and put joy back into our lives. Father Jeremiah, you certainly have the wisdom and strength to listen to many problems throughout your calling to Priesthood. You have touched our lives with your ability to make the body, blood, soul and divinity of Christ present on our altars. Thank you for bringing Christ to us.

A time and opportunity to say "thank you" to Father Jeremiah is available to all! Stop by for "coffee and donuts" in the Activities Center after the 8:00 am Mass on Sunday (7/26). Take the time to show him how appreciated he's been throughout the time he spent with us. We wish him well!

We will, like always, have our food booth there. This requires a lot of cooperation from our parish volunteers, beginning with the cooking, booth setup, etc. Please think about helping your Church by volunteering with any of the projects that will be needing done. No children under 12 will be admitted without parental supervision.

Also, at this most spiritual time, there will be a reading of all the names on our prayer list, where we pray that God will heal in mind, body and spirit.

Baptism for babies in our Church is for parents who want to raise their children in the Catholic Faith. Parents who do not come to Church, even if they have other children baptized, need to come to Church regularly if they hope to baptize their new children. God parents need to be practicing Catholics and should be able to give the Priest an approved sponsor certificate from their home Catholic Church.

OLQA Funerals & Cemetery Information

In the case of death, families must contact the Rectory of Our Lady Queen of Angels Catholic Church before they sit down with any funeral director, so that appropriate and proper arrangements may be made. The Pastor will help the family to make all arrangements for the Church, spiritual services, cemetery and burial arrangements, luncheons, etc. Families who do not follow this procedure are usually disappointed, especially at a time when they do not need additional stress in their lives. The choice is theirs. All funeral directors who do business with this Church should inform their clients of this fact.
